

Digital Marketing Internship — Project 2

Campaign Optimization & Scaling — Yarn Charms

Prepared by: Hafsa Sheraz

A portfolio-style case study showcasing campaign optimization, content strategy, and measurable impact for a handcrafted accessories brand.

Project Overview

About Yarn Charms

Handmade crochet accessories with a soft-pastel brand — focused on small-batch, crafted pieces like phone handbags and earphone bags.

Objectives

- Optimize active social campaigns
- Scale reach and conversions
- Improve creative performance through testing

Duration

6-week optimization and scaling sprint

Channels & Focus

- Platforms: Instagram · Facebook · LinkedIn
- Marketing focus: Content Marketing · Campaign Optimization · Analytics
- Paid & organic tactics: SEM · Meta Ads · Email · Influencer Outreach

Content Strategy — Pillars

Educational

How-tos, Crochet FAQs (Part 2), US vs UK terms — short carousels and saveable posts.

Product Promotion

Launch posts, product carousels, and shopping-focused captions highlighting materials and sizing.

Engagement & BTS

Behind-the-scenes reels, process snippets, community Q&A to increase saves and shares.

Professional Content

LinkedIn posts and articles to showcase craft story and small-business learnings.

LinkedIn Post

877 impressions • 645
reached

LinkedIn Article

222 impressions • 150 reached

Customer Inquiries

2 via Facebook • 1 via Instagram

KPI cards designed for quick stakeholder review. All numbers come from campaign tracking and platform insights.

Key Insights

Reels

Delivered the highest reach and top-of-funnel awareness.

Educational Posts

Achieved strongest engagement and saves, building long-term audience value.

Platform Differences

Facebook drove follower growth and inquiries; Instagram produced higher per-post engagement.

Creative Format

Product demonstration videos outperformed static promotional images.

Actionable takeaway: Prioritize short-form video + educational carousels, allocate ad spend toward retargeting viewers of reels, and convert engaged users with email follow-ups.
